

COMMISSION PROCEEDS AGAINST THREE ROADS

Southern, B. & O., and Winchester and Strasburg Lines Accused of Infringement of Statutes.

STRASBURG SERVICE AFFECTED

Rules Issued for Corporations to Show Why They Should Not Be Fined for Changing Schedules.

On its own initiative the State Corporation Commission yesterday began proceedings against the Southern Railway Company, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and the Winchester and Strasburg Railroad for alleged violation of the statute governing train service in the town of Strasburg.

Three rules were issued by the commission, two against the Southern and one against the Baltimore and Ohio and the Winchester and Strasburg railroad. The rules are as follows:

HEARD AND SEEN IN HOTEL LOBBIES

Among the arrivals yesterday at the Jefferson Hotel was Count Casanova Lombardi, of Florence, Italy, who is traveling in disguise.

TRIPLE RULES ISSUED

The rules issued and as follows: 1. Commonwealth of Virginia, at the Relation of the State Corporation Commission.

It being suggested to the commission that the passenger station on the Southern Railway Company at Catonsville Road Crossing, in the town of Strasburg, Va., which station has been established and maintained throughout the year for five consecutive years, the same has been abandoned without the consent of the State Corporation Commission.
